

WEST VIRGINIA VETERANS' LEGACY PROJECT

A GLENVILLE STATE COLLEGE INITIATIVE

TRADITION OF SERVICE

THE WEST VIRGINIA VETERANS' LEGACY PROJECT
A GLENVILLE STATE COLLEGE INITIATIVE

GLENVILLE
STATE COLLEGE

Uniforms of WV World War II veteran Troy Baber

West Virginia Veterans' Legacy Project...

...preserving and protecting the recollections, memories, and stories of WV's servicemen and women

A TRADITION OF SERVICE

• PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT •

Like the people of West Virginia, our photos and stories are diverse. Some are humorous, others horrific, and most fall somewhere in between. However, in each individual's story is a poignant piece of West Virginia and America.

The photography featured in the show is all by 1992 Glenville State College alumnus Mark Romano.

This 37-piece free show is suitable for galleries, festivals, larger buildings, store fronts, etc. and is available in two formats. One is traditionally framed for hanging. The other is mounted on lightweight durable plastic, ships easily, and can be displayed on movable walls, hard surfaces, etc. with thumb tacks, gum adhesives, and/or easels.

CALL (304) 462-6163 OR E-MAIL JASON.GUM@GLENVILLE.EDU FOR MORE INFORMATION ON HOW TO RESERVE THE PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT FOR YOUR VENUE.

VETERANS' LEGACY PROJECT

• MOBILE PROJECT DISPLAY •

The easily installed free mobile display is a stunning 10' x 7' 'pop up' piece that gives a brief overview of the West Virginia Veterans' Legacy Project that can stand alone or accompany the photography exhibit, book signing, and screenings of the documentary.

This display also comes with a flat-panel television on a small stand that can be used to play the documentary A Tradition of Service.

CALL (304) 462-6163 OR E-MAIL JASON.GUM@GLENVILLE.EDU FOR MORE INFORMATION ON HOW TO RESERVE THE DISPLAY FOR YOUR LOCATION.

HEROES AMONG US

• PHOTOGRAPHY BOOK •

Heroes Among Us

A Tradition of Service
The West Virginia Veterans' Legacy Project

The Heroes Among Us photography book contains succinct stories and quotes from West Virginia veterans. This stunning coffee table book is a montage of modern and historic pictures in sepia tones that combines the skills of Glenville State College alum and project photographer Mark Romano with the powerful words and stories of West Virginia veterans, Rosies, and Gold Star Mothers.

$10 to purchase ($15 for Heroes Among Us and A Tradition of Service)

CALL (304) 462-6163 OR E-MAIL JASON.GUM@GLENVILLE.EDU FOR MORE INFORMATION ON HOW TO PURCHASE A COPY OF THIS BOOK.

A TRADITION OF SERVICE

• VETERANS DOCUMENTARY •

This documentary was produced to inspire others to acknowledge the importance of recording the history of those around us and, most importantly, to highlight the sacrifices made by the people of our great state. The photography of Mark Romano and selected photos from The West Virginia Veterans' Legacy Project Collection are also presented here to give a better glimpse into West Virginia's long tradition of service and the heroes among us.

The documentary has aired at an official debut at Glenville State College and on WV PBS. It was produced by Allegheny Image Factory.

$10 to purchase ($15 for A Tradition of Service and Heroes Among Us)

CALL (304) 462-6163 OR E-MAIL JASON.GUM@GLENVILLE.EDU TO ORDER YOUR OWN COPY OF THE VETERANS' LEGACY PROJECT DOCUMENTARY, A TRADITION OF SERVICE.

West Virginia Veterans' Legacy Project...

...preserving and protecting the recollections, memories, and stories of WV's servicemen and women

Dedicated to Professor Larry Sypolt, 1949-2012
The Father of The WV Veterans' Legacy Project

Special thanks to all WV Veterans and their families, The Institute of Museum and Library Services, Charles Thomas, Alan Mollohan, Ike & Sue Morris, Mike Ross, WV Executive Magazine, Two-Lane Livin', The West Virginia Veterans Nursing Facility, The Beckley Veterans Hospital, Yeager Airport, Senator Jay Rockefeller, Associated Photography, Allegheny Image Factory, Dr. Peter Barr, Dr. Betsy Barr, James Spears, Denny Pounds, Midland Trail Gallery, Cherese Weaver, The Robert F. Kidd Library, Warren & Millie Matheny, George Daugherty, David Morris, Dr. J.B. Hill, Johnny Payne, Aramark, Thanks! Plain and Simple, Dr. Melissa Bingmann, Anne Montague, Dr. Kevin Crickard, Yvonne King, James Santa Maria, Jason Hedrick, Jared Frederick, Debbie Voloski, Lundy Bailey, III, Tony Whitlow and the Those Who Served Museum, and Robin Romano.

GLENVILLE
STATE COLLEGE